TO THE DEWAN OF MYSORE

for Sanction.

I put up Docket no. 252/39 dated 6: instant, from the Dy. Comr., Chitteldroog Dt., recommending that article 199 of the Mysore Service Regulations (under which Subordinates of the Police & Excise Depts while on privilege leave draw horse allowance) may be extended to Tank Inspectors.

2. I think it but reasonable that men of the class of Tank Mistries and Tank Inspectors shd. not be docked their wretched pony allowance of Rs 7½ and Rs 7 respectively, whilst on privilege leave. They have of course to maintain the animals during such absence, & it must be a great hardship for them to do so with their small salaries. (Rs 12 to 20 for Tank Inspectors, and Rs 20 to 40 for Article 1 the Mysore Service Regulations is not applicable to the Subordinate Excise & Police Dept. & either Sal. or Allowance and Travelling allowance is admissible while on leave under article 546 of above Regulations.

The sanctioned Travelling allowance for Lower Subordinates is as follows:-

(1) Excise Overseers — Rs.15/- per mensem.

(2) Talaris Inspectors — 7½ - do

(3) Tank Inspectors — 7- do —

Civil Dept.

(1) Police Inspectors — Rs 12 - do —

With reference to Your memo No 7272 dated 2 February 1898 Fl 676 forwarding for opinion copies of correspondence about House allowance to Salary Maistries and Tank Inspectors while on privilege leave and enquiring whether the subordinates of the Excise department are allowed such allowance as that referred to in the correspondence, I have the honour to state that Salary Maistries and Tank Inspectors may like
